

Gathered In Ireland 2019

Week 1: 21st to 29th September

Week 2: 28th September to 6th October

From Saturday 21st September until Sunday 6th October, churches throughout the Dioceses of Kilmore, Elphin and Ardagh will welcome 150 walking witnesses. These are ordinary Christians from these islands who have a passion for sharing the good news of Jesus Christ.

Bishop Ferran Glenfield says:

“Harvest is a time for gathering and celebration – both physically and spiritually.

We are seeking to gather and celebrate this September.

Will you join us spiritually in prayer and consider joining us physically by serving on a mission team?”

To be on a mission team you need to attend a Training Event which you can do without obligation to join the team!

Training Event Dates:

Cavan (Ireland) June 8th /9th

Hungerford (UK) May 11th/12th

St Austell (UK) July 20th /21st

The Facts and Figures...

Team Members:

Will need to sign up for the full week – either Week 1 or Week 2.

Will need to have attended one of the training events.

Will need to find £30 for training plus £18 for a sweatshirt as well as the costs of getting to and from the start/end of the mission in Longford, Ireland.

Will live simply: keeping belongings to a minimum and leaving all credit/debit cards at home. Phones can be brought, but we ask you please not to use them! Carrying a small amount of cash – say just enough to buy someone a cup of coffee each day – is a good idea.

Will be put into a team (each team ideally will have 10 members) and allocated a Team Leader early August – the Team Leader will then contact each team member.

Some teams will be asked to sleep on hall floors; some teams will be asked to walk a few miles... please make it clear on the application form if these would be impossible for you.
