NW200 - Northern Ireland - May 5-10

Please pray for a team of 19 led by Rodney Adamson in NI who regularly attend the NW200 to bring the gospel to the more than 100,000 attendees.

The event is a packed schedule for all ages, including comedy nights, live music, family fun days and rider meet & greets—all leading up to the world-class racing action on the famous Triangle Circuit.

Rodney writes, "This is a wonderful occasion to share the gospel with people from all over Europe and different parts of the world as well as our own people and many that come from England and Scotland as well. This also has been extremely fruitful opportunity in the past, with many contacts and many coming to faith.

Praying for the Lord help as we step out in faith. Looking forward to a fruitful time."

Lighthouse - Tuesday 6 May 7.15pm

Dan Holland is speaking at Lighthouse Cambridge on 06 May. His talk will be about prophetic evangelism, encouraging Christians to explore and use an under-utilized God-given tool in outreach encounters. All TFM friends in the Cambridge environs are doubly welcome to come along, and/or let their friends know.

Dan will talk about the reality of applying God-given insights to the evangelism task. Complimentary copies of his book "Prophetic Evangelism" will be provided to all attendees.

Venue: Queen Edith Chapel (near Addenbrookes) at 53 Wulfstan Way, Cambridge CB1 8QN.

Not essential, but if you could let us know if you hope to attend, that will help with catering. Please just email Peter Sammons at peter@throughfaithmissions.org.

Recommended books

There are 2 books by Ian Silk, long time TFM friend, former Trustee and coordinator of the Littleport mission in October, that we recommend. Both are available direct from Grove books by clicking on the titles below.

1. Mission Teams: What a difference they make

Mission teams come in all shapes and sizes and may even become communities of discipleship. This study explores how being open to surprises, working, sharing, serving, learning and praying together lie at the heart of effective mission teamwork. Lives may be transformed through imaginative outreach—but also in the team.

2. Encouragement: Presence, Word, Gift, Community

Encouragement is something all people need! This book explores the meaning and significance of encouragement in the New Testament and its expression in presence, words and giving. Readers will be both informed and encouraged by the inspiring stories, examples and texts presented.
